Hi Mas,

Let me check on the procedure for SKU / Part creation.

For Infocus, SKU creation should come through messaging. However, i think for Infocus as there are many buckets, there is a check in the procedure for SKU creation. The purpose is to reduce SKU from being created in bucket that is not required (this will help save space in database context)

Let me confirm on this first, and see any feasible solution to handle the scenario.

Hi Koh Wee ,

As per the telco of the SKU# not recognise on certain buckets, kindly advise on either :-

1. Auto all SKU in master list is recognise in all the Infocus storage/buckets

Or

2. Access for user to create(current only IT)

Kindly advise should I needs to raise ASR for this request.

Thank you.
